

Self-Serve Resource Rooms

Description: Although anyone searching for a new or better job should take advantage of the many free seminars available, Michigan Works Service Centers feature self-serve resource rooms with a variety of materials for customers including:

- ◆ Computers for job search through Internet websites
- ◆ Computer equipped with resume maker software that helps you create a Professional resume
- ◆ Reference materials on job search techniques
- ◆ Business directories to assist in researching employers
- ◆ The Michigan Occupational Information System that helps you explore Career opportunities, training required and employment outlook
- ◆ A phone bank for customers to use to schedule employer interviews
- ◆ A video library on topics including interviewing hints; job search Techniques and other topics

Michigan Works

Service Center Locations: PH MC ET R