

Assistive Computer Stations

Description:

Michigan Works Service Center computers are fully accessible to individuals with disabilities. Each Service Center has an Assistive Computer Station designed for individuals with low vision problems, mild to moderate psychomotor and/or learning disabilities. Our Assistive Computer is available to users on a self-serve basis, but customers may request help from trained staff persons at any time. Please contact any of the Michigan Works Service Centers for assistance and/or further information.

- ◆ JAWS for Windows
- ◆ Scanner with OpenBook software
- ◆ CCTV magnification device with foot switch
- ◆ Braille Embosser with Duxbury Software (*available at Clinton Twp. Only)
- ◆ Push Button Adjustable Height Desk
- ◆ Intellikeys Keyboard with Overlays
- ◆ Zoomtext Screen Magnification Software
- ◆ Read and Write Software
- ◆ Large Flat Panel Monitor
- ◆ Trackball Mouse