

On-the-Job Training

Who can register?

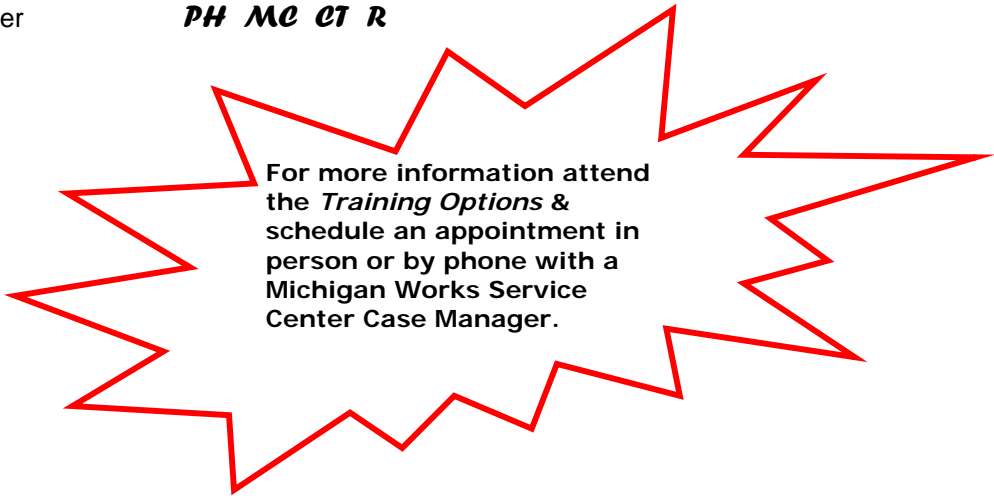

Individuals who do not have marketable skills to enter the workforce or individuals who after completing job search activities have not been successful in obtaining employment and wish to pursue training on the job. Because funds for training activities are limited, priority for training services include but are not limited to: public assistance recipients and other low income individuals.

Prerequisites:

Completion of registration in the Michigan Talent Bank system.
Documentation of career goals on an individual employment plan.
May include completion of other job search/job placement activities as deemed appropriate.
