Description: Veterans Employment Representatives, located on-site at Michigan Works Service Centers listed below, are veterans helping fellow veterans find work, build career skills and access state and federal veterans services. Veterans Employment Representatives are ready to help you with knowledge of the local job market and direct access to state and federal resources.

Services:

- ◆ Development of a personalized action plan to help you meet your employment goals
- ◆ Employment preference for veterans means a veterans Employment Representative has access to many jobs first and can refer veterans before the jobs are available to the general public
- ◆ In addition to using the Michigan Talent Bank labor exchange system, Veterans Employment Representatives can identify employers on your behalf
- ◆ Licensed counselors provide career exploration and planning through the use of interest inventories, labor market information and other career planning tools
- ◆ Help with overcoming employment barriers with referrals to agencies and organizations that can provide needed service.
