

Welfare-to-Work Programs

Description: The Work First program provides services to individuals that lead to employment and economic self-sufficiency. Eligible individuals referred by the Family Independence Agency include Family Independence Program recipients; Individuals receiving food stamp or Medicaid benefits or individuals utilizing Family Independence Agency child care benefits. Additionally, eligible individuals are referred by local Friend of the Court offices.

- Services:
- ◆ Assessment including basic skills assessment; career exploration; an assessment of barriers and job readiness evaluation
  - ◆ Job Readiness activities including barrier resolution; decision making and goal setting
  - ◆ Job Search preparation including job retention skills; interpersonal communication skills; resume preparation; interviewing skills and other job search preparation skills
  - ◆ Job Search/Job Club
  - ◆ Short term and long term career counseling
  - ◆ Support services and job retention activities

Michigan Works
Service Center
Locations/Contact:

PH MC CT R

Port Huron	Mt. Clemens	Clinton Twp.	Roseville
(810) 966-3347	(586) 469-7702	(586) 263-8371	(586) 447-9227

For more information contact Michigan Works Job Link staff.